MEMORIAL DAY BRINGS THREE-DAY HOLIDAY

The College will observe Memorial Day on Monday, May 29, as an academic and administrative holiday. Combined with Saturday and Sunday, May 27 and 28, the day-off makes a three-day holiday for the College.

All classes and offices will be closed for the holiday. The Library, which will be closed, will maintain its regular 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. schedule on the two preceding days.

Editor's Note: Let ye forget - The formal observance of Memorial Day (or Decoration Day as it was called for many years) dates from 1868 with the decoration of the graves of soldiers killed in the Civil War.

Since World War I, Memorial Day has commemorated the dead of all wars and serves unofficially as a day for decorating the graves of those dead who are remembered and mourned.

The P.E. facilities will be open all three days on regular schedule: Swimming Pool, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.; handball, tennis and raquetball courts, noon to 9 p.m.

A.S.B. OFFICERS TO CHANGE AT ANNUAL TRANSITION LUNCHEON

The Annual A.S.B. Transition Luncheon will be held Friday, June 2 at noon at the Castaway Restaurant.

Sydneye Moser-James, the first woman to be elected A.S.B. president in the College's history, will take office that day. The new president, who won the election by winning 60 per cent of the total vote, succeeds Kevin Gallagher who held the office for two successive terms.

Although Ms. Moser-James is the first woman to be elected A.S.B. president she is the second to hold that office. The first was Judy Jones, who, as vice president, assumed the presidency when the president was unable to serve.

FOUR CSCSB STUDENTS RECEIVE DRAMA AWARDS

Four CSCSB students won awards at the Inland Theater League's annual awards ceremony. Selected from more than 100 nominees by fellow actors, directors and drama critics from San Bernardino and Riverside counties were: Jodye Duncan Brown as Nericia in "Tonight in Samarkand;" Paul DeMeo and Danny Bilson, playwrights, for "The Houdini Deception" and Marilyn Wells as Mary MacGregor in "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie."

PAYDAY IS WEDNESDAY, MAY 31.

LIGHT MUSIC FOR SPRING EVENING
OFFERED BY CONCERT
CHOIR & CHAMBER SINGERS

A potpourri of light music for a spring evening will be presented by the College Concert Choir and Chamber Singers Wednesday, May 31. The program will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

Directing the two groups will be Loren Filbeck, Assoc. Prof., Music. A renaissance number, "Musica Dei donum optimi," by the choir will open the performance. Other selections on the program are a lyrical wedding chorus, a variety of humorous, "pseudo-German" nursery rhymes, a selection of short poems with a Oriental flavor set to music using percussion instruments (with English translation of each poem read by Larry Kramer, Prof., English), a combination of short madrigals and a series of American folk-song arrangements.

Two pieces will be led by student conductors. David Poole will conduct Vaughn Williams' "Silence and Music" and Kevin Price will lead "Der Abend" by Johannes Brahms.

General admission is $1.50; children and students with identification will be admitted free.

"MISS JEAN BRODIE" IN FINAL PERFORMANCES

Seats are still available for tonight's and tomorrow night's final performance of "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie." According to a theatre spokesman, tickets are nearly sold out, yet good seats can still be reserved for the two remaining nights.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. in the Theatre of the Creative Arts Building. General admission is $2.50 and $1.50 for students and senior citizens.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
HERE FOR DRAMA WORKSHOP

Approximately 225 students from ten San Bernardino and Riverside county high schools will participate in the College's Eighth Annual Theatre Workshop here next Saturday.

The all-day workshop will begin at 8:30 a.m. in the Theatre of the Creative Arts Building. Although seating is limited, community members are invited to observe the high school's presentations at no charge.

Each school will perform a 20-minute scene to be critiqued by a panel of theatre authorities from here and other colleges. Participating schools are Palm Springs, Rubidoux, Bloomington, Fontana, Corona, Perris, Hemet, Ramona, Rim of the World and Apple Valley.

Amanda Sue Rudisill, Assoc. Prof., Theatre Arts, is organizing the workshop.

THREE FACULTY MEMBERS
CHOSEN FOR LILLY PROGRAM

Three members of the College faculty have been selected to participate in the Lilly Program for Faculty Renewal at Stanford University this summer.

Kent Schofield, Prof., and Chairman, History; Brij B. Khare, Prof. and Chairman, Political Science, and William Gean, Asst. Prof., Philosophy and Acting Chairman for 1978-79, were nominated by the College and have been chosen by the Lilly Program to participate in the summer workshop from August 7 through 18.

The Lilly Endowment was established in 1975 with the aim to give faculty members in mid-career a chance to revitalize their scholarly commitments with colleagues from Stanford and other universities. They are drawn from four-year state colleges and universities, private liberal arts and community colleges in the Pacific Coast region. The program covers full cost of room and board.

At this year's conference on "Twentieth Century," Dr. Khare will attend workshops on "Revolution and Development in 20th Century China;" Dr. Schofield on "Postwar America;" and Dr. Gean on "Main Trends in 20th Century Continental Philosophy."
